

For Immediate Release
September 28, 2011

Dick Kane, (850) 414-4595
dick.kane@dot.state.fl.us

FDOT Secretary Prasad Names Billy Hattaway as District One Secretary

Tallahassee – Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) Secretary Ananth Prasad today named Billy Hattaway as the new District One Secretary. Hattaway, who brings more than 30 years of private and public sector experience to the Department, previously served as Managing Director of Transportation, Florida at Vanasse, Hangen and Brustlin.

Secretary Prasad said, “Billy Hattaway brings his strong record of achievement and his vast background and experience to the Department. Billy will build on the strong foundation in District One and will deliver the bold transportation agenda the Governor has implemented. Billy’s private and public sector knowledge make him an outstanding addition to the Department.”

Hattaway has more than 30 years of experience in the transportation industry, including 23 years with FDOT where he previously held the positions as Director of the Office of Design and State Roadway Design Engineer. Hattaway earned his bachelor’s degree in civil engineering from Wentworth Institute of Technology in Boston, Massachusetts. He earned his master’s degree in business (MBA) from Florida State University. He is a licensed Professional Engineer (P.E.) in Florida.

District One is located in central and southwest Florida and encompasses the following counties: Charlotte, Collier, De Soto, Glades, Hardee, Hendry, Highlands, Lee, Manatee, Okeechobee, Polk, and Sarasota.

www.dot.state.fl.us

Consistent, Predictable, Repeatable